CHAPTER

AN ACT

Relating to Boring and Dull Day.

Whereas the village of Dull, located in the County of Perth and Kinross in Scotland, United Kingdom, has chosen to look to Boring, Oregon; and

Whereas the community of Boring, located within Clackamas County in the State of Oregon, United States, has chosen to look to Dull, Scotland; and

Whereas both Boring and Dull are located near the foothills of their regions' most prominent mountains—Mt. Hood in Oregon, standing at 11,250 feet, and Schiehallion in Scotland, measuring 3,553 feet; and

Whereas both Boring and Dull are surrounded by productive pastoral farmland; and

Whereas the County of Perth and Kinross is home to numerous horse races, horse trials and horse shows; and

Whereas Clackamas County is the home of Oregon horse country; and

Whereas Boring is located in the evergreen Clackamas County, named after the native Clackamas tribe; and

Whereas Dull is situated next to the County of Clackmannanshire; and

Whereas Boring and Dull together create excitement, attracting interest to each respective community; and

Whereas in April and May 2012 the world was abuzz in anticipation of the pairing of Boring and Dull; and

Whereas on June 5, 2012, representing the people of Boring, the Boring Community Planning Organization voted unanimously to approve a declaration to pair Boring with Dull, making Boring and Dull a “Pair for the Ages”; and

Whereas on August 9, 2012, representing the people of Clackamas County, the Board of County Commissioners of Clackamas County voted unanimously to proclaim that Dull, Scotland, and Boring, Oregon, are a “Pair for the Ages” and that August 9 shall be recognized as a Boring and Dull day in perpetuity; and

Whereas Boring and Clackamas County are situated within the State of Oregon; and

Whereas the Seventy-seventh Legislative Assembly endorses and supports the actions of the Boring Community Planning Organization and the Board of County Commissioners of Clackamas County; and

Whereas reading this 2013 Act is boring and dull; now, therefore,

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. August 9 of each year is designated as Boring and Dull Day to commemorate the pairing of Boring, Oregon, and Dull, Scotland, as a “Pair for the Ages.”
