

What is it going to take for the idiots in government to understand. If i was a criminal i would buy a gun through another person not a dealer. I would also make sure that it could not be traced. You must understand this and make laws tougher on criminals that are caught with this gun. No background check of any kind is going to stop someone who wants to buy a gun to do harm to someone. Make the laws that punish the criminal not the law abiding citizen.....Thomas Lynch
