Senate Bill 629

Sponsored by Senator SHIELDS, Representative GALLEGOS; Senators DEMBROW, STEINER HAYWARD, Representatives FREDERICK, GREENLICK, KOMP, MCLAIN, REARDON (at the request of Western Regional Advocacy Project)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor’s brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Establishes Oregon Right to Rest Act. Makes violation unlawful practice enforceable by Commissioner of Bureau of Labor and Industries or by civil action.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to rights of persons experiencing homelessness; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 659A.885.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Sections 2 to 6 of this 2015 Act are added to and made a part of ORS chapter 659A.

SECTION 2. Sections 3 to 6 of this 2015 Act shall be known and may be cited as the “Oregon Right to Rest Act.”

SECTION 3. (1) The Legislative Assembly finds that:

(a) Many persons in Oregon have experienced homelessness as a result of economic hardship, a shortage of safe and affordable housing, the inability to obtain gainful employment and a disintegrating social safety net system; and

(b) Decriminalization of rest allows local governments to redirect resources from local law enforcement activities to activities that address the root causes of homelessness and poverty.

(2) It is declared to be the public policy of Oregon to guarantee persons experiencing homelessness participation in the social and economic life of this state, remunerative employment, use of and free movement within public spaces, participation in and receipt of the benefits of the services, programs and activities of state government and local governments and housing accommodations of the person’s choice, without discrimination on the basis of the person’s housing status.

SECTION 4. As used in sections 3 to 6 of this 2015 Act:

(1) “Harassment” means a knowing and willful course of conduct by law enforcement officers, public or private security personnel or employees of local governments directed at a person experiencing homelessness that a reasonable person would consider as seriously alarming, annoying, tormenting or terrorizing of the person experiencing homelessness.

(2) “Housing status” means the residential status of a person experiencing homelessness.

(3) “Local government” has the meaning given that term in ORS 174.116.

(4) “Motor vehicle” has the meaning given that term in ORS 801.360.

(5)(a) “Persons experiencing homelessness” means persons who lack, or are perceived to lack, a fixed, regular and adequate nighttime residence or who have a primary nighttime residence in a shelter, on the street, in a vehicle or in an enclosure or structure that is not authorized or not fit for human habitation.

(b) “Persons experiencing homelessness” includes:

(A) Persons who reside in a residential hotel or any other location without tenancy rights.

(B) Families with children staying in a residential hotel whether with or without tenancy rights.

(6)(a) “Public space” means any property that is owned, in whole or in part, by state government or a local government, or upon which there is an easement for public use, and that is held open to the public.

(b) “Public space” includes but is not limited to plazas, courtyards, parking lots, sidewalks, public transportation facilities and services, public buildings and parks.

(c) “Public space” does not mean a private business establishment.

(7) “Recreational vehicle” has the meaning given that term in ORS 446.003.

(8) “Rest” means the state of sleeping or not moving or the state of holding certain postures that include but are not limited to sitting, standing, leaning, kneeling, squatting or lying on the ground or other surface.

(9) “State government” has the meaning given that term in ORS 174.111.

SECTION 5. (1) In enacting sections 3 to 6 of this 2015 Act, it is the intent of the Legislative Assembly that:

(a) Persons experiencing homelessness be permitted to use public spaces in the same manner as any other person without discrimination based on their housing status;

(b) Civil and human rights that are protected for persons in their homes and in other private places be extended to the public spaces in which persons experiencing homelessness live; and

(c) Every person in this state, including persons experiencing homelessness, have the rights set forth in subsection (2) of this section to be exercised without being subject to harassment.

(2) Notwithstanding any other law or regulation of state government or local government, a person experiencing homelessness has the following rights:

(a) To use and move freely in public spaces without discrimination and time limitations that are based on housing status.

(b) To rest in public spaces and seek protection from adverse weather conditions that are unsuitable for human exposure in a manner that does not obstruct human or vehicle traffic.

(c) To eat, share, accept or give food in any public space in which having food is not prohibited.

(d) To pray, meditate, worship or practice religion in public spaces without discrimination based on housing status.

(e) To occupy a motor vehicle or a recreational vehicle provided that the vehicle is legally parked on public property or on private property with the permission of the private property owner.

SECTION 6. (1) It is an unlawful practice for any person to deny, refuse, restrict or withhold from a person experiencing homelessness, because of the person’s housing status, any of the rights listed in section 5 of this 2015 Act.
(2) Complaints alleging an unlawful practice under this section may be filed by the aggrieved person, or by a person lawfully acting on behalf of the aggrieved person, with the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries in the manner provided by ORS 659A.820. The commissioner shall enforce this section in the manner provided in this chapter regarding other unlawful practices.

(3) Violation of this section subjects the violator to the civil remedies and penalties provided in this chapter.

SECTION 7. ORS 659A.885 is amended to read:

659A.885. (1) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful practice specified in subsection (2) of this section may file a civil action in circuit court. In any action under this subsection, the court may order injunctive relief and any other equitable relief that may be appropriate, including but not limited to reinstatement or the hiring of employees with or without back pay. A court may order back pay in an action under this subsection only for the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of a complaint under ORS 659A.820 with the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries, or if a complaint was not filed before the action was commenced, the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the action. In any action under this subsection, the court may allow the prevailing party costs and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section:

(a) The judge shall determine the facts in an action under this subsection; and

(b) Upon any appeal of a judgment in an action under this subsection, the appellate court shall review the judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (3).

(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, compensatory damages or $200, whichever is greater, and punitive damages;

(b) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

(c) Upon appeal of any judgment finding a violation, the appellate court shall review the judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (1); and

(d) Any attorney fee agreement shall be subject to approval by the court.

(4) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 652.355 or 653.060, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, compensatory damages or $200, whichever is greater.

(5) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 171.120, 476.574, 659A.203 or 659A.218, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, compensatory damages or $250, whichever is greater.

(6) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 10.090 or 10.092, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, a civil penalty in the amount of $720.
(7) Any individual against whom any distinction, discrimination or restriction on account of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status or age, if the individual is 18 years of age or older, has been made by any place of public accommodation, as defined in ORS 659A.400, by any employee or person acting on behalf of the place or by any person aiding or abetting the place or person in violation of ORS 659A.406 may bring an action against the operator or manager of the place, the employee or person acting on behalf of the place or the aider or abettor of the place or person. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, in an action under this subsection:

(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, compensatory and punitive damages;

(b) The operator or manager of the place of public accommodation, the employee or person acting on behalf of the place, and any aider or abettor shall be jointly and severally liable for all damages awarded in the action;

(c) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

(d) The court shall award reasonable attorney fees to a prevailing plaintiff;

(e) The court may award reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a defendant who prevails only if the court determines that the plaintiff had no objectively reasonable basis for asserting a claim or no reasonable basis for appealing an adverse decision of a trial court; and

(f) Upon any appeal of a judgment under this subsection, the appellate court shall review the judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 19.415 (1).

(8) When the commissioner or the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that a person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the rights protected by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or federal housing law, or that a group of persons has been denied any of the rights protected by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or federal housing law, the commissioner or the Attorney General may file a civil action on behalf of the aggrieved persons in the same manner as a person or group of persons may file a civil action under this section. In a civil action filed under this subsection, the court may assess against the respondent, in addition to the relief authorized under subsections (1) and (3) of this section, a civil penalty:

(a) In an amount not exceeding $50,000 for a first violation; and

(b) In an amount not exceeding $100,000 for any subsequent violation.

(9) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or alleging discrimination under federal housing law, when the commissioner is pursuing the action on behalf of an aggrieved complainant, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees to the commissioner if the commissioner prevails in the action. The court may award reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a defendant that prevails in the action if the court determines that the commissioner had no objectively reasonable basis for asserting the claim or for appealing an adverse decision of the trial court.

(10) In an action under subsection (1) or (8) of this section alleging a violation of ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal housing law:

(a) “Aggrieved person” includes a person who believes that the person:

(A) Has been injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing practice; or

(B) Will be injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur.

(b) An aggrieved person in regard to issues to be determined in an action may intervene as of right in the action. The Attorney General may intervene in the action if the Attorney General certifies that the case is of general public importance. The court may allow an intervenor prevailing party costs and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal.

(11) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation of section 6 of this 2015 Act, the court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under subsection (1)
of this section:

(a) Compensatory damages or $1,000 per violation, whichever is greater; and

(b) A civil penalty in the amount of $1,000.
