

To Whom it May Concern:

Bravo to this committee for taking on this necessary and oft-maligned issue. Counter to the hysterics of many of those in our business community, the sky will not fall if we come closer to offering a fair wage to those who are integral to driving our economy. Quite the opposite, as those dollars will circulate anew in a state that continues to offer a strong and progressive example to the entire nation.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Trinkle
Aurora, Oregon