

I am an appraiser. I work for my self. I am not an employee for the state or any one else to determine what I get paid. It is called self employment.

The market sets our fees like ALL other self employed people. This will destroy an industry already having difficulties. If this passes, I will probably move to another state.

I will not have a government agency or any other for that matter set me fee's!

Gary Faltersack