Legislature:

Are you actually going to vote this bill into law? Do you understand how disrespectful and abusive tenants can be? They cheat and say they have service dogs when they don't need them and want to have a pet, they trash our houses and we spend 10k average putting them back together! We own 13 rentals...all upper end custom homes and we cannot find many decent tenants. We put up and respect them, but now you are asking us to PAY THEM to leave when we have to sell a house? My husband is disabled and medical bills can be horrific. We have to sell a house about every 2 years to stay financially afloat. We are retired. What are you doing to protect US? OMG! Get a grip!!! Way over the top!!
