

i have retirement rentals in lane county. i find the current thinking about the issue is headed in a wrong direction. to keep rents down one needs more supply, i.e. the ability to build infill and adus need to be made simpler. the top down approach will have your fair share of unexpected consequences, take your pick.

john karlik