

Genetically engineered plants are dangerous.

Hold patent holders responsible for contamination events — not pit farmer against farmer.

Protect high-value crops in Oregon, such as specialty seed, wheat and alfalfa, which have been put at significant risk by GE contamination.

Protect communities from the unwanted presence of invasive GE weeds, such as Creeping Bentgrass, now de-regulated and spreading in Malheur and Jefferson counties.

Respectfully,

Marie Wakefield
3054 Hwy 20
Newport , OR 97365
wakefieldm\_2000@yahoo.com