The death of a 25-year-old man fatally shot by West Linn police Friday has been ruled a suicide because of his statements and apparent behavior before the shooting, according to the Oregon State Medical Examiner's Office.

Chance Ricky Thompson died from a gunshot wound to the head. Police on Monday afternoon identified the officer involved in the shooting as Brad Moyle, a 16-year West Linn police veteran.

West Linn police said officers were called about 10:15 p.m. to a neighborhood in the 2100 block of Long Street after someone reported a man with a handgun apparently threatening to kill himself.

The armed man was shot within minutes of police arriving and encountering him, authorities said.

Thompson died at the scene. Police have not said what led to the shooting or how many shots were fired.

Moyle has been placed on standard paid administrative leave due to an investigation, police said.
