3 “137.225. (1)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, at any time after the lapse 4 of three years from the date of pronouncement of judgment, any defendant who has fully complied 5 with and performed the sentence of the court and whose conviction is described in subsection (5) 6 of this section by motion may apply to the court where the conviction was entered for entry of an 7 order setting aside the conviction. A person who is still under supervision, or who is still 8 incarcerated, as part of the sentence for the offense that is the subject of the motion has not fully 9 complied with or performed the sentence of the court.

10 “(b) At any time after the lapse of one year from the date of any arrest, issuance of a criminal 11 citation or criminal charge, if no accusatory instrument was filed, or at any time after an acquittal 12 or a dismissal of the charge, the arrested, cited or charged person may apply to the court that 13 would have jurisdiction over the crime for which the person was arrested, cited or charged, for 14 entry of an order setting aside the record of the arrest, citation or charge. For the purpose of 15 computing the one-year period, time during which the [arrested] person has secreted himself or her-16 self within or without this state is not included.

17 “(c) A person whose sentence of probation was revoked may not apply to the court for entry 18 of an order setting aside the conviction for which the person was sentenced to probation for a pe-19 riod of 10 years from the date of revocation.

20 “(2)(a) A copy of the motion and a full set of the defendant’s fingerprints shall be served upon 21 the office of the prosecuting attorney who prosecuted the crime or violation, or who had authority 22 to prosecute the charge if there was no accusatory instrument filed, and opportunity shall be given 23 to contest the motion. The fingerprint card with the notation ‘motion for setting aside conviction,’ 24 or ‘motion for setting aside arrest, citation or charge record’ as the case may be, shall be for-25 warded to the Department of State Police. Information resulting from the fingerprint search along 26 with the fingerprint card shall be returned to the prosecuting attorney.

27 “(b) When a prosecuting attorney is served with a copy of a motion to set aside a conviction 28 under this section, the prosecuting attorney shall provide a copy of the motion and notice of the 29 hearing date to the victim, if any, of the crime by mailing a copy of the motion and notice to the 30 victim’s last-known address.

31 “(c) When a person makes a motion under subsection (1)(a) of this section, the person must pay 32 a fee of $80 to the Department of State Police. The person shall attach a certified check payable to 33 the Department of State Police in the amount of $80 to the fingerprint card that is served upon the 34 prosecuting attorney. The office of the prosecuting attorney shall forward the check with the fin-35 gerprint card to the Department of State Police.

1 “(d) In addition to the fee established under paragraph (c) of this subsection, when a person
2 makes a motion under subsection (1)(a) of this section the person must pay the filing fee established 3 under ORS 21.135.

4 “(e) The prosecuting attorney may not charge the defendant a fee for performing the require-5 ments described in this section.

6 “(3) Upon hearing the motion, the court may require the filing of such affidavits and may require 7 the taking of such proofs as the court deems proper. The court shall allow the victim to make a 8 statement at the hearing. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (12) of this section, if the court 9 determines that the circumstances and behavior of the applicant from the date of conviction, or from 10 the date of arrest, citation or charge as the case may be, to the date of the hearing on the motion 11 warrant setting aside the conviction, or the arrest, citation or charge record as the case may be, 12 the court shall enter an appropriate order that shall state the original arrest or citation charge and 13 the conviction charge, if any and if different from the original, date of charge, submitting agency 14 and disposition. The order shall further state that positive identification has been established by the 15 Department of State Police and further identified as to Department of State Police number or sub-16 mitting agency number. Upon the entry of the order, the applicant for purposes of the law shall be 17 deemed not to have been previously convicted, or arrested, cited or charged as the case may be, 18 and the court shall issue an order sealing the record of conviction and other official records in the 19 case, including the records of arrest, citation or charge whether or not the arrest, citation or 20 charge resulted in a further criminal proceeding.

21 “(4) The clerk of the court shall forward a certified copy of the order to such agencies as di-
22 rected by the court. A certified copy must be sent to the Department of Corrections when the person 23 has been in the custody of the Department of Corrections. Upon entry of the order, the conviction, 24 arrest, citation, charge or other proceeding shall be deemed not to have occurred, and the appli-25 cant may answer accordingly any questions relating to its occurrence.

26 “(5) The provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this section apply to a conviction for:

27 “(a) A Class B felony, except for a violation of ORS 166.429 or any crime classified as a person 28 felony as that term is defined in the rules of the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission, only if:

29 “(A)(i) Twenty years or more have elapsed from the date of the conviction sought to be set aside 30 or of the release of the person from imprisonment for the conviction sought to be set aside, which-31 ever is later; and

32 “(ii) The person has not been convicted of, [or] arrested or criminally cited for or charged 33 with any other offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, after the date the person was convicted 34 of the offense sought to be set aside. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a conviction, 35 [or] arrest, citation or charge that has been set aside under this section shall be considered for the 36 purpose of determining whether this subparagraph is applicable; or 37 “(B) The Class B felony is described in paragraphs (b) to (e) of this subsection.

43 qualify for an order under this section.

44 “(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5) of this section, the provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this 45 section do not apply to a conviction for:

1           “(a) Criminal mistreatment in the second degree under ORS 163.200 if the victim at the time of 2 the crime was 65 years of age or older.

3           “(b) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree under ORS 163.205 if the victim at the time of the 4 crime was 65 years of age or older, or when the offense constitutes child abuse as defined in ORS 5 419B.005.

6           “(c) Endangering the welfare of a minor under ORS 163.575 (1)(a), when the offense constitutes 7 child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005.

8           “(d) Criminally negligent homicide under ORS 163.145, when that offense was punishable as a 9 Class C felony.

10          “(e) Assault in the third degree under ORS 163.165 (1)(h).

11          “(f) Any sex crime, unless:

12           “(A) The sex crime is listed in ORS 163A.140 (1)(a) and:

13           “(i) The person has been relieved of the obligation to report as a sex offender pursuant to a 14 court order entered under ORS 163A.145 or 163A.150; and

15           “(ii) The person has not been convicted of, found guilty except for insanity of or found to be 16 within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court based on a crime for which the court is prohibited from 17 setting aside the conviction under this section; or 18           “(B) The sex crime constitutes a Class C felony and:

19           “(i) The person was under 16 years of age at the time of the offense;

20           “(ii) The person is:

21           “(I) Less than two years and 180 days older than the victim; or 22           “(II) At least two years and 180 days older, but less than three years and 180 days older, than 23 the victim and the court finds that setting aside the conviction is in the interests of justice and of 24 benefit to the person and the community;

25           “(iii) The victim’s lack of consent was due solely to incapacity to consent by reason of being less 26 than a specified age;

27           “(iv) The victim was at least 12 years of age at the time of the offense;

28           “(v) The person has not been convicted of, found guilty except for insanity of or found to be 29 within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court based on a crime for which the court is prohibited from 30 setting aside the conviction under this section; and 31           “(vi) Each conviction or finding described in this subparagraph involved the same victim.

33 do not apply to:

34           “(a) A conviction for a state or municipal traffic offense.

35           “(b) A person convicted, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the filing of the motion 36 pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, of any other offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, 37 whether or not the other conviction is for conduct associated with the same criminal episode that 38 caused the arrest, citation, charge or conviction that is sought to be set aside. A single violation, 39 other than a motor vehicle violation, within the last 10 years is not a conviction under this sub-40 section. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a conviction that has been set aside under 41 this section shall be considered for the purpose of determining whether this paragraph is applicable.

42           “(c) A person who at the time the motion authorized by subsection (1) of this section is pending 43 before the court is under charge of commission of any crime.

44          “(8) The provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section do not apply to:

45           “(a) A person arrested or criminally cited for or charged with an offense within the three-

1 year period immediately preceding the filing of the motion for any offense, excluding motor vehicle 2 violations, and excluding arrests, citations or charges for conduct associated with the same crim-
3 inal episode that caused the arrest, citation or charge that is sought to be set aside. An arrest, 4 citation or charge that has been set aside under this section may not be considered for the purpose 5 of determining whether this paragraph is applicable.

6 “(b) An arrest or citation for driving while under the influence of intoxicants if the charge is 7 dismissed as a result of the person’s successful completion of a diversion agreement described in 8 ORS 813.200.

9 “(9) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section apply to convictions, [and] arrests, citations
10 and charges that occurred before, as well as those that occurred after, September 9, 1971. There 11 is no time limit for making an application.

12 “(10) For purposes of any civil action in which truth is an element of a claim for relief or af-13 firmative defense, the provisions of subsection (3) of this section providing that the conviction, ar-14 rest, citation, charge or other proceeding be deemed not to have occurred do not apply and a party 15 may apply to the court for an order requiring disclosure of the official records in the case as may 16 be necessary in the interest of justice.

17 “(11) Upon motion of any prosecutor or defendant in a case involving records sealed under this 18 section, supported by affidavit showing good cause, the court with jurisdiction may order the reo-19 pening and disclosure of any records sealed under this section for the limited purpose of assisting 20 the investigation of the movant. However, such an order has no other effect on the orders setting 21 aside the conviction or the arrest, citation or charge record.

22 “(12) Unless the court makes written findings by clear and convincing evidence that granting 23 the motion would not be in the best interests of justice, the court shall grant the motion and enter 24 an order as provided in subsection (3) of this section if the defendant has been convicted of one of 25 the following crimes and is otherwise eligible for relief under this section:

26 “(a) Abandonment of a child, ORS 163.535.
