

If you don't think this bill might someday apply to YOU, think again! You could be the person that a healthcare representative is starving or dehydrating to death. We are not a society with a culture of death. Please vote NO on HB4135. This is all about the insurance companies.

Shannon Wine

Madras, OR