

I am father of three children.

I am against the removal of informed consent when it come to my children. Please put your efforts into a bill that demands safety studies and safer vaccines for all children.