

Hello,

Thank you for taking the time to hear my concerns. Making vaccinations mandatory, while at the same time having laws in place that remove all liability from manufacturers creates a dangerous situation where the only guiding force is profit. This creates an unnatural and potentially dangerous market.

Thank you,

Benjamin Roe, RN