My apologies . In my previous email I said I hope you didn't pass. When I actually meant I hope it does pass. I don't want these bombs used to kill any animals so however way it goes I don't want any animals killed

I live in eastern Oregon and I oppose the cyanide pill. This will kill anything in its path including deer elk coyotes wolves little varmints. This is not right and I hope that this does not get passed. We love our wildlife out here in eastern Oregon. Pretty soon we're going to be killing everything and we won't have anything left and the ecosystem will suffer.

Regards,
Doreen
