

I both cycle for recreation and to commute. The Idaho stop would enable me to get to work faster and have less of an impact on cars on the road. I am highly motivated to use this option safely and in a manner that is respectful of others using the road. The 2010 study of the impact of the law in Idaho demonstrates the safety of the law.

Thanks

Ian Steiner
Portland, OR