[(a) The insurer has a lien against such cause of action for benefits it has so furnished, less the proportion, not to exceed 100 percent, of expenses, costs and attorney fees incurred by the injured person in connection with the recovery that the amount of the lien before such reduction bears to the amount of the recovery.]

(a) Subject to ORS 742.544, an insurer has a lien, for not more than the amount of benefits the insurer furnished, against an injured person's recovery in an action for damages, less a proportionate amount of not more than 100 percent of the expenses, costs and attorney fees the injured person incurred in connection with the recovery. The proportionate amount must be calculated as the ratio between the amount of the lien before a reduction under this paragraph and the amount of the recovery.

(b) The injured person shall include the benefits the insurer furnished as damages in [such] a claim or legal action [the benefits so furnished by the insurer].

(c) In the case of a legal action, the action [shall] must be taken in the name of the injured person.

(4) As used in this section, "makes a claim" [or "claim" refers to] means delivers a written demand [made and delivered] for a specific amount of damages [and which] that meets [other] requirements reasonably established by the director's rule.

SECTION 2. ORS 742.538 is amended to read:

742.538. If a motor vehicle liability insurer has furnished personal injury protection benefits, or a health insurer has furnished benefits, [for] to a person who was injured in a motor vehicle accident[,] and the interinsurer reimbursement benefit of ORS 742.534 is not available under the terms of that section, [and] the insurer has not elected recovery by lien as provided in ORS 742.536, and the insurer is entitled by the terms of [its] the insurer's policy to the benefit of this section:

(1) Subject to ORS 742.544, the insurer is entitled to the proceeds of any settlement or judgment that [may result] results from the exercise of any rights of recovery [of] the injured person has against any person legally responsible for the accident, to the extent of [such] the benefits the insurer furnished [by the insurer] less the insurer's share of expenses, costs and attorney fees [incurred by] the injured person incurred in connection with [such] the recovery.

(2) The injured person shall hold in trust for the benefit of the insurer [all such rights of recovery which the injured person has, but only to the extent of such benefits furnished] the amount to which the insurer is entitled under this section, which may not exceed the amount of benefits the insurer furnished.

(3) The injured person shall do whatever is proper to secure, and [shall do nothing after loss to] may not prejudice, [such rights] the rights an insurer has under this section.

(4) If requested in writing by the insurer, the injured person shall take, in the injured person's name and through any representative the insurer designates who is not in conflict in interest with the injured person [designated by the insurer, such action as may be necessary or appropriate to recover such benefits furnished as damages from such responsible person, such action to be taken in the name of the injured person, but only to the extent of the benefits furnished by the insurer. In the event of a recovery, the insurer shall also be reimbursed out of such recovery for the injured person's share of expenses, costs and attorney fees incurred by the insurer in connection with the recovery], such action as is necessary or appropriate to recover the amounts to which the insurer is entitled under this section, including amounts for the injured person's share of expenses, costs and attorney fees that the insurer incurred in connection with the recovery.

(5) In calculating respective shares of expenses, costs and attorney fees under this section, the basis of allocation [shall] must be the respective proportions borne to the total recovery by:

(a) [Such] Benefits the insurer furnished [by the insurer]; and

(b) The total recovery less [(a)] the benefits the insurer furnished.

(6) The injured person shall execute and deliver to the insurer [such] instruments and papers as [may be] are appropriate to secure the rights and obligations of the insurer and the injured person as established by this section.

(7) Any provisions in a motor vehicle liability insurance policy or health insurance policy giving rights to the insurer relating to subrogation or the subject matter of this section [shall] must be construed and applied in accordance with the provisions of this section.

SECTION 3. ORS 742.544 is added to and made a part of ORS 742.518 to 742.542.

SECTION 4. ORS 742.544 is amended to read:

742.544. [(1) A provider of personal injury protection benefits shall be reimbursed for personal injury protection payments made on behalf of any person only to the extent that the total amount of benefits paid exceeds the damages suffered by that person. As used in this section, "total amount of benefits" means the amount of money recovered by a person from:]

[(a) Applicable underinsured motorist benefits described in ORS 742.502 (2);]

[(b) Liability insurance coverage available to the person receiving the personal injury protection benefits from other parties to the accident;]

[(c) Personal injury protection payments; and]

[(d) Any other payments by or on behalf of the party whose fault caused the damages.]

[(2) Nothing in this section requires a person to repay more than the amount of personal injury protection benefits actually received.]

(1)(a) As used in this subsection, "total amount of the recovery" means the amount that a person injured in a motor vehicle accident recovers from:

(A) Underinsured motorist benefits described in ORS 742.502 (2);

(B) Liability insurance coverage the injured person receives from other parties involved in the motor vehicle accident;

(C) Personal injury protection benefits or health insurance benefits; and

(D) Any other payment by or on behalf of the party that caused the motor vehicle accident.

(b) An insurer may not receive a reimbursement or subrogation for personal injury protection benefits or health benefits the insurer provided to a person injured in a motor vehicle accident from any recovery the injured person obtains in an action for damages except to the extent that:

(A) The injured person first receives full compensation for the injured person's injuries; and

(B) The reimbursement or subrogation is paid only from the total amount of the recovery in excess of the amount that fully compensates for the injured person's injuries.

(2) For purposes of this section, the following rebuttable presumptions apply:

(a) The amount of any judgment that an injured person obtains is the amount necessary to fully compensate for the injured person's injuries.

(b) An injured person has received full compensation for the injured person's injuries if the amount of the recovery is less than the coverage available to the injured person from the sum of benefits paid under another person's motor vehicle liability policy, under an underinsured motorist policy described in ORS 742.502 (2), as personal injury protection payments and from any other source of payment from or on behalf of the party whose fault caused the injuries.

(c) An injured person has not received full compensation for the injured person's injuries if the injured person recovers an amount that is equal to the coverage available to the injured person from the sum of benefits paid under another person's motor vehicle liability policy, under an underinsured motorist policy described in ORS 742.502 (2), as personal injury protection payments and from any other source of payment from or on behalf of the party whose fault caused the injuries.

(3) An insurer may not deny or refuse to provide benefits that are otherwise available to an injured person because of the potential the injured person has to make a claim or bring an action against another person or enter into a settlement with another person.

(4) A person with whom an injured person enters into a settlement or from whom the injured person obtains a judgment in connection with a claim or action may not name an insurer that seeks a reimbursement or subrogation under ORS 742.536 or 742.538 as a payee on a check, draft or other form of payment in satisfaction of the claim or judgment.

(5) An insurer may not delay, withhold or reduce benefits to an injured person because of an act or omission for which a third party is or may be liable or as a means of enforcing or attempting to enforce a claim for reimbursement or subrogation.

(6) An insurer that receives a reimbursement for benefits the insurer provided to an injured person shall apply the amount of the reimbursement as a credit against any lifetime maximum benefit set forth for the injured person in the policy, benefit plan or contract under which the insurer paid the benefits.

(7) A provision in a policy, benefit plan or contract that permits reimbursement or subrogation other than as provided in this section is void and unenforceable.

(8) This section does not:

(a) Prohibit insurers from coordinating benefits;

(b) Limit an insurer's right to seek reimbursement or subrogation to recover, without reduction, amounts the insurer paid for property damage;

(c) Limit an insurer that provided coverage against underinsured motorists from pursuing a claim against a party at fault; or

(d) Require a person to repay more than the amount of personal injury protection benefits that the person actually received.

SECTION 5. The amendments to ORS 742.536, 742.538 and 742.544 by sections 1, 2 and 4 of this 2019 Act apply to insurance policies, contracts or plans that an insurer issues or renews on or after the operative date specified in section 6 of this 2019 Act.
