7 “SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2019 Act is added to and made a part
8 of ORS chapter 419B.

9 “SECTION 2. (1) If it reasonably appears that a child is a runaway,
10 the child may be taken into protective custody by a peace officer,
11 counselor, employee of the Department of Human Services or any 12 other person authorized by the juvenile court of the county in which 13 the child is found.

14 “(2) When a child is taken into protective custody as a runaway
15 under subsection (1) of this section, the peace officer or other person
16 who takes the child into custody:

17 “(a)(A) Shall release the child without unnecessary delay to the 18 custody of the child’s parent or guardian or to a shelter facility that 19 has agreed to provide care and services to runaway children and that 20 has been designated by the juvenile court to provide such care and 21 services; or

1 “(B) Shall follow the procedures described in ORS 419B.160, 419B.165,
2 419B.168 and 419B.171;

3 “(b) Shall, if possible, determine the preferences of the child and 4 the child’s parent or guardian as to whether the best interests of the 5 child are better served by placement in a shelter facility that has 6 agreed to provide care and services to runaway children and that has 7 been designated by the juvenile court to provide such care and services 8 or by release to the child’s parent or guardian; and

9 “(c) Notwithstanding ORS 419B.165 and subsection (1) of this sec- 10 tion, shall release the child to a shelter facility that has agreed to 11 provide care and services to runaway children and that has been des-
12 ignated by the juvenile court to provide such care and services if it
13 reasonably appears that the child would not willingly remain at home
14 if released to the child’s parent or guardian.

15 “SECTION 3. ORS 419B.150 is amended to read:

16 “419B.150. [(1) A child may be taken into protective custody by a peace of-
17 ficer, counselor, employee of the Department of Human Services or any other 18 person authorized by the juvenile court of the county in which the child is 19 found, in the following circumstances:]

20 “[(a) When the child’s condition or surroundings reasonably appear to be 21 such as to jeopardize the child’s welfare;]

22 “[(b) When the juvenile court, by order indorsed on the summons as pro- 23 vided in ORS 419B.839 or otherwise, has ordered that the child be taken into 24 protective custody; or]

25 “[(c) When it reasonably appears that the child has run away from home.]

26 “[(2)(a) Before issuing an order under subsection (1)(b) of this section, the 27 court shall review an affidavit sworn on information and belief provided by a 28 peace officer, counselor or employee of the department or other person author-
29 ized by the juvenile court that sets forth with particularity the facts and cir-
30 cumstances on which the request for protective custody is based, why protective

6 “(1) As used in this section:

7 “(a) ‘Abuse’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 419B.005.

8 “(b) ‘Reasonable cause’ means a subjectively and objectively rea- 9 sonable belief, given all of the circumstances and based on specific and 10 articulable facts.

11 “(c) ‘Severe harm’ means:

12 “(A) Life-threatening damage; or

13 “(B) Significant or acute injury to a person’s physical, sexual or 14 psychological functioning.

15 “(2) The following persons are authorized to take a child into pro-
16 TECTIVE custody under this section:

17 “(a) A peace officer, as defined in ORS 420.905;

18 “(b) A counselor; or

19 “(c) An employee of the Department of Human Services.

20 “(3)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, a
21 child may be taken into protective custody without a court order only 22 when there is reasonable cause to believe that:

23 “(A) There is an imminent threat of severe harm to the child;

24 “(B) The child poses an imminent threat of severe harm to self or 25 others; or

26 “(C) There is an imminent threat that the child’s parent or guard-
27 ian will cause the child to be beyond the reach of the juvenile court
28 before the department can complete assessment of an abuse allegation 29 involving the child.

30 “(b) If there is reason to know that the child is an Indian child, the

1 child may be taken into protective custody without a court order only 2 when it is necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to
3 the child.

4 “(4) A person authorized to take a child into protective custody
5 shall apply for a protective custody order, as described in subsection
6 (6) of this section, by submitting a declaration based on information 7 and belief that sets forth with particularity:

8 “(a) Why protective custody is necessary and the least restrictive 9 means available to:

10 “(A) Protect the child from abuse;

11 “(B) Prevent the child from inflicting harm on self or others;

12 “(C) Ensure that the child remains within the reach of the juvenile 13 court to protect the child from abuse or to prevent the child from in- 14 licting harm on self or others; or

15 “(D) If the department knows or has reason to know that the child
16 is an Indian child, prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the 17 child.

18 “(b) Why protective custody is in the best interests of the child.

19 “(5)(a) The applicant under subsection (4) of this section shall de- 20 liver the declaration described in subsection (4) of this section to the 21 juvenile court.

22 “(b) The declaration may be delivered to the juvenile court in the 23 form of an oral statement taken by the juvenile court under oath
24 consistent with rules made and orders issued by the Chief Justice of 25 the Supreme Court.

26 “(6) The juvenile court may order that a child be taken into pro-
27 ductive custody if, after reviewing the declaration described in sub- 28 section (4) of this section, the court determines that:

29 “(a) Protective custody is necessary and the least restrictive means 30 available to:

1 “(A) Protect the child from abuse;
2 “(B) Prevent the child from inflicting harm on self or others;
3 “(C) Ensure that the child remains within the reach of the juvenile 4 court to protect the child from abuse or prevent the child from in-
5 flicting harm on self or others; or
6 “(D) If the department knows or has reason to know that the child
7 is an Indian child, prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the 8 child.

9 “(b) Protective custody is in the best interests of the child.

10 “(7) When the court issues a protective custody order under sub- 11 section (6) of this section, the court may transmit the signed order to 12 the applicant by a form of electronic communication approved by the 13 court that delivers a complete printable image of the signed order. The 14 court shall file the original order and the declaration in the court re- 15 cord.

16 “SECTION 4. ORS 418.937 is amended to read:

17 “418.937. When making any placement decision involving a refugee child 18 under ORS 419B.150, 419C.080 or 419C.088 or section 2 of this 2019 Act, the 19 Department of Human Services and the juvenile court shall consider that 20 child’s culture and tradition. Unless shown to be inappropriate and incon-
21 sistent with the best interests of the child, the department and juvenile court 22 shall place the child with the following in order of preference:

23 “(1) Natural parents.

24 “(2) Extended family members.

25 “(3) Members of the same cultural heritage.

26 “(4) Persons with knowledge and appreciation of the cultural heritage of 27 the child.”.

28 In line 25, delete “2” and insert “5”.

29 On page 4, line 42, delete “3” and insert “6”.

30 On page 7, line 7, delete “4” and insert “7”.

1 On page 9, after line 17, insert:

2 “SECTION 8. ORS 419B.021 is amended to read:

3 “419B.021. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the 4 following persons must possess a bachelor’s, master’s or doctoral degree from 5 an accredited institution of higher education:

6 “(a) A person who conducts an investigation under ORS 419B.020; and 7 “(b) A person who makes the following determinations:

8 “(A) That a child must be taken into protective custody under ORS
9 419B.150 or section 2 of this 2019 Act; and

10 “(B) That the child should not be released to the child’s parent or other 11 responsible person under ORS 419B.165 (2).

12 “(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to:

13 “(a) A person who was employed or otherwise engaged by the Department
14 of Human Services for the purpose of conducting investigations or making 15 determinations before January 1, 2012, provided the person’s employment or 16 engagement for these purposes has been continuous and uninterrupted.

17 “(b) A law enforcement official as that term is defined in ORS 147.005.

18 “SECTION 9. ORS 419B.055 is amended to read:

19 “419B.055. (1) The Attorney General may bring an action in a circuit 20 court for a citation or a stalking protective order under ORS 30.866 or 21 163.730 to 163.750 on behalf of an employee of the Department of Human 22 Services who, because of being involved in the conduct described in sub-23 section (3) of this section, is the subject of repeated and unwanted contact 24 by another person that causes alarm or coercion to the employee. The At-25 torney General’s responsibility under this subsection is limited to circum-
26 stances in which an employee of the department submits a written request 27 to the Attorney General that:

28 “(a) Has been approved in writing by the Director of Human Services or 29 the director’s designee;

30 “(b) Sets forth sufficient facts and evidence, the truth of which has been

1 affirmed by the employee; and

2 “(c) Based solely upon the opinion of the Attorney General, is an action 3 that is likely to succeed.

4 “(2) The action brought under this section may not include a request for:

5 “(a) Special and general damages, including damages for emotional dis-
6 tress;

7 “(b) Economic or noneconomic damages;

8 “(c) Punitive damages; or

9 “(d) Attorney fees and costs.

10 “(3) Departmental employees on whose behalf the citation or stalking
11 protective order may be obtained under subsection (1) of this section include 12 employees who:

13 “(a) Conduct a child abuse investigation under ORS 419B.020;

14 “(b) Make a determination that a child must be taken into protective 15 custody under ORS 419B.150 or section 2 of this 2019 Act;

16 “(c) Make a determination that a child should not be released to the 17 child’s parent or other responsible person under ORS 419B.165 (2); and 18 “(d) Are involved in developing a case plan or making a placement deci-19 sion for a child in the legal custody of the department.

20 “SECTION 10. ORS 419B.100 is amended to read:

21 “419B.100. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this sec-
22 tion and ORS 107.726, the juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction 23 in any case involving a person who is under 18 years of age and:

24 “(a) Who is beyond the control of the person’s parents, guardian or other 25 person having custody of the person;

26 “(b) Whose behavior is such as to endanger the welfare of the person or 27 of others;

28 “(c) Whose condition or circumstances are such as to endanger the wel-
29 fare of the person or of others;

30 “(d) Who is dependent for care and support on a public or private child-

1 caring agency that needs the services of the court in planning for the best
2 interest of the person;

3 “(e) Whose parents or any other person or persons having custody of the 4 person have:

5 “(A) Abandoned the person;

6 “(B) Failed to provide the person with the care or education required by 7 law;

8 “(C) Subjected the person to cruelty, depravity or unexplained physical 9 injury; or

10 “(D) Failed to provide the person with the care, guidance and protection 11 necessary for the physical, mental or emotional well-being of the person;

12 “(f) Who [has run away from the home of the person] is a runaway;

13 “(g) Who has filed a petition for emancipation pursuant to ORS 419B.550 14 to 419B.558; or

15 “(h) Who is subject to an order entered under ORS 419C.411 (7)(a).

16 “(2) The court shall have jurisdiction under subsection (1) of this section 17 even though the child is receiving adequate care from the person having 18 physical custody of the child.

19 “(3) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not prevent a court 20 of competent jurisdiction from entertaining a civil action or suit involving 21 a child.

22 “(4) The court does not have further jurisdiction as provided in subsection
23 (1) of this section after a minor has been emancipated pursuant to ORS 24 419B.550 to 419B.558.

25 “(5)(a) An Indian tribe has exclusive jurisdiction over any child custody 26 proceeding involving an Indian child who resides or is domiciled within the 27 reservation of the tribe, except where the jurisdiction is otherwise vested in 28 the state by existing federal law.

29 “(b) Upon the petition of either parent, the Indian custodian or the Indian 30 child’s tribe, the juvenile court, absent good cause to the contrary and absent

1 objection by either parent, shall transfer a proceeding for the foster care
2 placement of, or termination of parental rights to, an Indian child not 3 domiciled or residing within the reservation of the Indian child's tribe, to 4 the jurisdiction of the tribe.

5 “(c) The juvenile court shall give full faith and credit to the public acts,
6 records and judicial proceedings of an Indian tribe applicable to an Indian 7 child custody proceeding to the same extent that the juvenile court gives full 8 faith and credit to the public acts, records and judicial proceedings of any 9 other entity.

10 “SECTION 11. ORS 419B.121 is amended to read:

11 “419B.121. Notwithstanding ORS 419C.145, the court may order the de-12 tention of a child who resides in another state if the court finds probable 13 cause to believe that the child [has run away from home or from a
14 placement] is a runaway. If a child is ordered detained under this section, 15 the court shall make such orders as are necessary to cause the child to be 16 immediately returned to the child's state of residence.

17 “SECTION 12. ORS 419B.185 is amended to read:

18 “419B.185. (1) When a child or ward is taken, or is about to be taken, into 19 protective custody pursuant to ORS 419B.150, 419B.160, 419B.165, 419B.168
20 and 419B.171 or section 2 of this 2019 Act and placed in detention or shel-
21 ter care, a parent, child or ward shall be given the opportunity to present 22 evidence to the court at the hearings specified in ORS 419B.183, and at any 23 subsequent review hearing, that the child or ward can be returned home
24 without further danger of suffering physical injury or emotional harm, en-
25 dangering or harming others, or not remaining within the reach of the court
26 process prior to adjudication. At the hearing:

27 “(a) The court shall make written findings as to whether the Department
28 of Human Services has made reasonable efforts or, if the Indian Child Wel-
29 fare Act applies, active efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for removal 30 of the child or ward from the home and to make it possible for the child or

1 ward to safely return home. When the court finds that no services were 2 provided but that reasonable services would not have eliminated the need for 3 protective custody, the court shall consider the department to have made
4 reasonable efforts or, if the Indian Child Welfare Act applies, active efforts
5 to prevent or eliminate the need for protective custody. The court shall in-6 clude in the written findings a brief description of the preventive and reu-
7 nification efforts made by the department.

8 “(b) In determining whether a child or ward shall be removed or contin-
9 ued out of home, the court shall consider whether the provision of reasonable 10 services can prevent or eliminate the need to separate the family.

11 “(c) In determining whether the department has made reasonable efforts 12 or, if the Indian Child Welfare Act applies, active efforts to prevent or 13 eliminate the need for removal of the child or ward from the home and to 14 make it possible for the child or ward to safely return home, the court shall 15 consider the child or ward’s health and safety the paramount concerns.

16 “(d) The court shall make a written finding in every order of removal that 17 describes why it is in the best interests of the child or ward that the child 18 or ward be removed from the home or continued in care.

19 “(e) When the court determines that a child or ward shall be removed 20 from the home or continued in care, the court shall make written findings 21 whether the department made diligent efforts pursuant to ORS 419B.192. The 22 court shall include in its written findings a brief description of the efforts 23 made by the department.

24 “(f) The court shall determine whether the child or ward is an Indian 25 child as defined in ORS 419A.004 or in the applicable State-Tribal Indian 26 Child Welfare Agreement.

27 “(g) The court may receive testimony, reports and other evidence without 28 regard to whether the evidence is admissible under ORS 40.010 to 40.210 and 29 40.310 to 40.585 if the evidence is relevant to the determinations and findings
30 required under this section. As used in this paragraph, ‘relevant evidence’

1 has the meaning given that term in ORS 40.150.

2 “(2) To aid the court in making the written findings required by sub-3 section (1)(a), (d) and (e) of this section, the department shall present written 4 documentation to the court outlining:

5 “(a) The efforts made to prevent taking the child or ward into protective 6 custody and to provide services to make it possible for the child or ward to 7 safely return home;

8 “(b) The efforts the department made pursuant to ORS 419B.192; and 9 “(c) Why protective custody is in the best interests of the child or ward.

10 “SECTION 13. ORS 419C.156 is amended to read:

11 “419C.156. Notwithstanding ORS 419C.145 (1) and (2), the court may order 12 the detention of a youth who resides in another state if the court makes 13 written findings that there is probable cause to believe that the youth [has 14 run away from home or from a placement] is a runaway and that describe 15 why it is in the best interests of the youth to be placed in detention. If a 16 youth is ordered detained under this section, the court shall make such or-17 ders as are necessary to cause the youth to be immediately returned to the 18 youth’s state of residence.”.
